The Reason I Jump

PD Movie Event

Who: Lyn Becker, PD facilitator

What: The Reason I Jump by Naoki Higashida. Step into the thought process of individuals on the autism spectrum. Learn what makes them tick, how they see our world and how they communicate in the absence of voice.

Where: In the comforts of your own home.

When: September 7, 2022 - Lyn will contact each participant to explain the process

Why: Earn 4 professional development hours while gaining a better understanding of our friends who have a unique way of thinking, communicating, and experiencing the environment around them.

How: Visit <http://www.midstatespec.org/professional-development/> to register for this free PD movie event. Each participant must be able to access The Reason I Jump movie on a Netflix account or read the book. After viewing the movie participants will be asked to complete and submit their reflection on specific aspects of the movie.
